Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Records in our custody generally do not go beyond 1954. The document titled "State Funeral Plan" is the only Archival material in our custody relative to the Kennedy assassination.

Records of the Navy Department, Treasury (Secret Service) and Military District of Washington are not yet retired to the National Archives as permanently valuable records. For further assistance you therefore, should send separate requests to each of the records management offices listed below:

Department of the Army
DAAG (AMR-S)
Washington, DC 20310

Department of the Navy/NOP
Room 5E-613
The Pentagon
Washington, DC 20350

Department of the Treasury
Bureau Government Financial Operations
Division, Facilities Management
Room 632, Treasury Annex
Madison Place and Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20226

Sincerely,

Edwin R. Coffey
